

The Oldfield Oracle

Last Newsletter for First Grade!

Calendar Dates:

Week of June 8-16, 2009

There will be NO Spelling, Bible, Math tests or Reading Contracts for the rest of the year. Hurray!

We will be assessing reading next week to determine your child's fluency, sight words, and comprehension. You will receive a copy of the results in your child's report card.

Banana Split Time Tests!

Students are working on their addition/subtraction speed drills up to +10/-10. Keep working each day with your child.

We will be making our banana splits on Friday, June 12, from 2:15-3:00.

*Please note the sign-up sheet outside the door to bring items for making the banana splits.

If you are a parent who would like help making the banana splits, please see Mrs. O. Thanks!

Passport Assembly on June 15.

Every child who has done level five all year will be receiving a trophy at the passport assembly. Parents are welcome to come to the assembly. Please be in our room by 8:45 if you are planning on coming.

End of Year

We will be having a lot of important activities during the last week of school. (June 15 and 16). If your child will not be present on any of those days, please let me know as soon as possible.

Field Day is June 11, 1:00-3:00

If you haven't been to field day before, it is a lot of fun. There are many organized outdoor games on the field that the kids rotate through. Parents are welcome to join us.

Last Day with Reading Buddies....

We will be seeing our buddies for the last time on Wednesday, June 10. We will be having cupcakes, a picnic lunch, playing together, and exchanging gifts. Please bring a gift for your buddy that is $5 or less on this day. Bring a sack lunch to heat. NO HEAT UPS!.. Thanks!

Special thanks to the following parents who drove/chaperoned to Northwest Trek this week: Mrs. Veley, Mrs. Hansen, Mrs. Nielsen, Mrs. Freese, Mrs. Fields, Mr. Pust, Mrs. Strophy, Mrs. Irish, Mrs. Russell, and Mr. Brian. We really appreciate you! The kids had a wonderful time learning about the animals. Ask them about the three different types of habitats!

A Note from Mrs. Oldfield:

Dear Parents and Students:

Thank you so much for such a terrific year. I really LOVE teaching first grade!! What a special group you are. I pray God's many blessings for you and your family. Have a terrific summer and be sure to keep in touch!

I love you all so much!

Love, Mrs. Oldfield :

Mon., 6/8 PE, Music

Behavior reports signed

Reading Assessments

Tues., 6/9 Library

Behavior reports returned

Reading Assessments

Wed., 6/10 Reading Buddies Picnic @11:15..Bring a non-microwaveable lunch and gift.

9:30 Last Chapel... wear chapel clothes!

Thurs. 6/11 FIELD DAY & HOT DOG LUNCH!

Fri., 6/12 Donuts with Dad @8:10-8:35

PE; CLEAN CLASSROOM DAY

Banana Splits Day.. 2:15-3:00

Mon., 6/15

9:00-10:00: Passport Club Assembly

10:00-3:00: Class Party at Pust home. Bring towel, bathing suit. Lunch is provided!

Tues., 6/16 LAST DAY OF SCHOOL!!! DISMISS AT NOON

Memory Books, Awards, Games

Receive your report cards with SATs